SHOT FOUR, ASSAULTED WOMAN.

Negro in North Carolina Town Accomplishes Diabolical Purpose.

Warrenton, N. C., Sept. 17.—Geo. Marshall, a negro said to have come here from North late this afternoon, criminally assaulted Mrs. J. E. Choplin, the wife of a farmer, at Vicksboro, 14 miles from here, killed her father, J. W. Abbott, who attempted to rescue his daughter, and later shot the sheriff and two members of the posse, after the negro had escaped from the scene of the assault upon Mrs. Choplin.

The negro barricaded himself in a house. When the sheriff came to arrest him the negro shot him and two other members of the posse. This morning, after the house had been watched all night, the negro's father, by a ruse, entered the house with other negroes and overpowered him, when the posse rushed in, bound him and brought him here to jail. The whole of two counties is aroused over the atrocious deed and it is reported that a mob will attempt to lynch the negro to-night.

Court convenes here to-morrow and authorities are trying to induce the angry citizens to let the law take its course, promising that the negro will be tried to-morrow. Marshall's victim was 22 years old. She was on her way to a spring when accosted by the negro, who covered her with a gun until he had accomplished his purpose.

She Gets $10,000 Heart Balm.

Salina, Kans., Sept. 13.—The jury in the case of Miss Alice Bowes, of Topeka, against N. W. Sly, a claim agent of the Union Pacific railroad, in which she asked $50,000 damages for breach of promise, rendered a verdict last night, assessing the damages at $10,000.

The case was one of the most bitterly fought ever tried in Salina county. This was the third trial. The first trial ended when Miss Bowes fainted on the stand. The second trial resulted in a hung jury. The case was filed in 1909.

Sly has been a railroad man for years, and is well known along the Union Pacific railroad from Kansas City to Sharon Springs. Miss Bowes was an employee in hotels in Kansas. Sly denied he ever proposed to Miss Bowes. He said that he might have been nice to her. Experience had taught him, he said, that the best way to get good service in the hotels and eating houses he was obliged to patronize was to jolly the employees, which he made a practice of doing.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Owens, of Birmingham, Ala., arrived in the city last Saturday, and are spending several days here with relatives. Mr. Owens is a son of Mr. J. R. Owens. It is likely that they will locate in Bamberg, and we will gladly welcome them as residents.

In commenting on the fact that the Hon. W. Jasper Talbert would be a candidate for the seat now held by Senator Tillman in the United States Senate, The Bamberg Herald said it "thought that Uncle Jas. had joined the down and outs." That is exactly what he will join next summer when Ben Tillman gets through with him.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

WHISKEY DRUMMER ARRESTED.

Richmond Salesman Fined $150 by Chester Authorities.

Chester, Sept. 15.—L. R. Smalls, traveling salesman for the Howard Distilling Company, of Richmond, Va., has made various and sundry trips to Chester for the purpose of taking orders for his house; but his visit Tuesday proved his undoing. He was nabbed by the police on the charge of soliciting orders for whiskey, or selling whiskey, as it is called in the ordinance of the city, and when he saw that Chief Sanders had all of the evidence required, made a clean breast of the matter. He was placed under $200 bond, but Tuesday evening, after a consultation with Mayor Wise, the case was dismissed with payment of $150 fine on condition that Smalls never return to Chester, either in the capacity of liquor salesman or otherwise. The fine was promptly paid and Smalls went his way.

BATTLES WITH BIG SHARK.

Bather at Pablo Beach Attacked by Twelve-Foot Monster.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 17.—H. C. Rood, a traveling salesman of Hartford, Conn., was attacked by a twelve-foot shark while bathing at Pablo Beach, a resort near here, and as a result had his left arm badly lacerated and will probably lose the member. Rood, who is an expert swimmer ventured too far out into the surf, and when warnings were shouted at him turned just in time to see the approaching fish. Fortunately, the shark could not swim well in the shallow water and just managed to catch the swimmer's arm. Rood started for the shore frantically and managed to escape a second attack.

He was placed in an automobile and rushed to St. Luke's Hospital, in this city.
